

The Drone 360

The drone landscape is evolving at an unprecedented pace. Join us for a high-level visit diving into civilian and military drone applications, counter-drone capabilities, regulation, and the fast-shifting transatlantic drone market.

→ April 15–17, 2026
Washington, D.C.

About the program

- Be in the rooms where the key decisions on drone innovation happen — across civilian, commercial, and defense sectors, including autonomy, AI-regulation, airspace integration, and counter-drone technologies
- Meet face-to-face with experts from the U.S. Department of Homeland Security (DHS), Cybersecurity and Infrastructure Security Agency (CISA), and Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) whose decisions directly influence global drone markets
- Join exclusive Q&A sessions with leading drone and counter-drone integrators
- Learn and exchange best practices on how to strengthen security planning and adopt recommendations that help manage UAS-related risks more effectively
- Understand European cooperation with U.S. counterparts, as well as NATO markets and NATO interoperability
- Gain insight into the geopolitical power shifts reshaping today's global security environment

The program fee is USD 5,700.

Please note that travel and accommodation costs are not included.

Places will be filled on first come, first served basis.
